FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LESCO Announces Acquisition

Logistics & Environmental Support Services Corporation (LESCO) announced its acquisition by local businessman Don Miller, former founder, president, and principal shareholder of MILTEC.

“I am very excited of the recent acquisition of LESCO”, said Miller. “LESCO combines an impressive past performance with excellent management and organizational capabilities. LESCO will continue delivering total logistics solutions to government and commercial customers, with the corporate headquarters remaining in Huntsville, Alabama”.

LESCO provides logistical solutions in core business areas of base operational support, warehouse and distribution management, and logistics support solutions, serving customers in Department of Defense, Federal agencies, and commercial markets.

LESCO is a Veteran-Owned Small Business, headquartered in Huntsville, Alabama with support personnel located across the United States. LESCO is an ISO 9001:2008 company that combines an impressive past performance with excellent management and organizational capabilities.
